19. Talk more
20. What sort of communication?
21. Bigger noticeboards. Stop long term commercial posters taking up space.
22. Difficult as there is no central meeting point. Emails could be used but it would require a volunteer to take charge and it puts the responsibility on them.
23. Facebook page for the village.
24. It can't. Those who want to reciprocate will and those who don't want, you can lead a horse to water but you can't make him drink.
25. Country News is a good source
26. Make Country News more appealing to everyone by, for example, each editor choosing the front page and writing an editorial. Also having letters to the editor. Make it not so 'churchy'.
27. You don't often see many walking about. They have their cars or else walking one at a time walking their dog.
28. Move the dog bin further away from the SSG noticeboard at the village hall. The communication is generally very good. Thank you all involved.
29. Neighbourhood could be more friendly.
30. Perhaps more editorial articles in Country News.
31. I think communication is very good.
32.
  - a. More use of the noticeboard by individuals, organisations

- b. A notice on how you hire the hall and the cost for doing so for private events/birthday parties.
- 33. Very good communication already.
- 34. We have tried everything. We are too near Exeter.
- 35. For us, Country News and posters work well. I know other villages have facebook pages but these can be a lot of work as someone needs to police them. (If there was a consensus of people who did want a facebook page, I'd be happy to help as I look after the social media sites of the company I work for, so have some experience.)
- 36. Better use of social media. i.e. Facebook, twitter, whatsapp etc.
- 37. Country News is a good provider of communication.
- 38. Parish Council members should canvas in the areas they cover. It's about showing the community within the villages their passion to make the village a better place. Talk to people, get their views, build better community spirit, share upcoming events, know the people who are being represented by Parish.
- 39. Allow people to sign up for email communications via the Shillingford website.
- 40. More frequent meetings to discuss problems.
